ABSTRACT

Adnin, Annisa Nurjannah. 2014. An Analysis of Translation Strategies Found in English-Bahasa Indonesia Short Story *Some Words with a Mummy. Study Program of English, Department of Languages and Literatures, Faculty of Cultural Studies, Universitas Brawijaya. Supervisor: Yana Shanti Manipuspika; Co-supervisor: Agus Gozali.

Keywords: translation, translation strategies, Some Words with a Mummy short story.

Translation is the process of changing the meaning of the source language text by means of an equivalent target-language text. Translation plays a key role in exchanging the information between languages. The translator should be careful to use an appropriate strategy to produce a good translation. This study aims to find out the kinds or translation strategies found in English-Indonesian short story Some Words with a Mummy by using Chesterman's theory (1997). Furthermore, the writer proposes three problems of the study, (1) What types of translation strategies found in English-Indonesian short story Some Words with a Mummy are (2) What types of translation strategies that most frequently used in English-Indonesian short story Some Words with a Mummy are, and (3) What the possible reasons the translator uses translation strategies for translating short story Some Words with a Mummy are.

This study used qualitative approaches in document analysis since the data were sentences in a short story. The data source of this study is Some Words with a Mummy short story. The writer applies the theory of Chesterman (1998) which divides the classification of translation strategies into three kinds, namely; syntactic strategies, semantic strategies, and pragmatic strategies.

From the three kinds of translation strategies, the researcher finds forty five sentences containing translation strategies of Some Words with a Mummy short story. The result shows that nine sentences use syntactic strategies, twenty five sentences use semantic strategies, and eleven sentences use pragmatic strategies. Then, the most frequently used type of translation strategies is a semantic strategies, and the possible reason translator use syntactic strategies is to create the story more natural to reading, next for semantic strategies is to produce the short story clearly understandable to the target language, and for pragmatic strategies is to make the target language understand what is the author's purposes

The writer suggests the next writer who wants to do the analysis of translation strategies to use another theory or subject.

ABSTRAK

Adnin, Annisa Nurjannah. 2014. Analisis Strategi Terjemahan Bahasa Inggris-Indonesia pada *Some Words with a Mummy Short Story. Program Studi Sastra Inggris, Jurusan Bahasa dan Sastra, Fakultas Ilmu Budaya, Universitas Brawijaya. Pembimbing: (I) Yana Shanti Manipuspika; (II) Agus Gozali.

Kata Kunci: penerjemahan, strategi terjemahan, Some words with a Mummy Short Story.

Terjemahan adalah proses perubahan makna dari teks bahasa sumber melalui teks sasaran-bahasa. Terjemahan adalah kunci dalam pertukaran informasi antara bahasa. Pada era globalisasi banyak produk terjemahan bermunculan, salah satunya adalah cerita pendek. Penerjemah harus berhati-hati dalam menggunakan strategi yang tepat untuk menghasilkan terjemahan yang baik. Penelitian ini bertujuan untuk mengetahui jenis strategi terjemahan yang ditemukan dalam cerita pendek Bahasa Inggris-Indonesia Obrolan dengan Mummy dengan menggunakan teori Chesterman (1998). Selanjutnya, peneliti mengajukan tiga permasalahan yaitu (1) apa saja tipe dari strategi terjemahan yang ditemukan pada Bahasa Inggris-Indonesia Some Words with a Mummy Short Story (2) apa saja tipe dari strategi terjemahan yang paling banyak ditemukan pada Bahasa Inggris-Indonesia Some Words with a Mummy Short Story, dan (3) apa saja kemungkinan penerjemah menggunakan strategi terjemahan untuk menerjemahkan Some Words with a Mummy Short Story.

Penelitian menggunakan pendekatan kualitatif pada analisis dokumen, karena data adalah kalimat dari cerita pendek. Sumber data pada penelitian ini adalah Some Words with a Mummy Short Story. Peneliti menggunakan teori dari Chesterman (1998) membagi klasifikasi strategi terjemahan menjadi tiga jenis yaitu sintaksis, semantik, dan strategi pragmatis.

Dari tiga jenis strategi penerjemahan, peneliti menemukan bahwa penerjemah dari Some Words with a Mummy Short Story ada empat puluh enam kalimat yang mengandung strategi penerjemahan. Hasil penelitian menunjukkan bahwa sembilan kalimat menggunakan strategi sintaksis, dua puluh lima kalimat menggunakan strategi semantik, dan sebelas kalimat menggunakan strategi pragmatis. Strategi yang paling banyak digunakan oleh translator adalah semantik strategi, dan kemungkinan penerjemah menggunakan strategi sintaktis adalah untuk membuat cerita agar lebih natural untuk dibaca, lalu untuk semantik strategi adalah untuk membuat cerita lebih mudah dipahami oleh pembaca, dan untuk pragmatik strategi adalah untuk membuat pembaca memahami betul apa yang ditulis oleh penulis.

Peneliti mengusulkan kepada peneliti selanjutnya yang ingin menganalisis translation strategi diharapkan untuk membuat analisis strategi penerjemahan menggunakan teori lain atau subjek lain.
